Góis, Coimbra

DESCRIPTION

The Aquatic Hike on the Ceira River is a soft canyoning experience that combines nature, fun and adrenaline, set in one of the most beautiful and well-preserved sections of Góis municipality. The route follows the riverbed, through clear waters, rocky formations and a lush natural landscape.

Along the descent, participants encounter small rapids, sections that can be crossed swimming or on foot, and several optional jumps into the water, with heights of up to around 8 metres, depending on river conditions. Highlights include a waterfall perfect for photos, a slide into the river and the classic "Tarzan" jump, adding an extra layer of excitement to the experience.

The activity ends in a particularly scenic stretch of the river, with the final section completed at a relaxed pace, either swimming or walking along the bank. Ideal both for those seeking a calm connection with nature and for those looking for adventure and aquatic adventure, this activity requires some physical ability and stamina and is an excellent introduction to canyoning. Minimum age: 8 years.
