What to bring?

Clothing appropriate for the season and daytime conditions. In summer, bring a hat, sunscreen, light clothing, water, a light lunch, closed sandals or shoes that can get wet (do not wear flip-flops), dry clothes, and a towel. In winter, bring a swimsuit and lycra to wear under the neoprene suit, old shoes if you are not using neoprene boots, water, a light lunch, dry and warm clothes, and a towel.

Food/Lunch

Lunch at the end: from 14€ including a main course, 2 drinks and coffee. (other options available)

- Contact us directly to receive lunch options at a restaurant, catering or pre-made snacks to complement your activity!

Otherwise, each participant must bring their own packed lunch. We recommend sandwiches, energy bars, etc.

Recomendations

During periods of higher water flow, the descent depends on an assessment on the day itself and may be cancelled. Participation is not recommended for those under 16 years of age in autumn and winter. Glasses must have a safety cord. It is not recommended to bring electronic equipment; valuables should be kept in a backpack and nothing should be visible in the vehicles.
