

CAVING

in Soprador do Carvalho Cave

Penela, Leiria

From 40€

DESCRIPTION

Guided tour of the Soprador do Carvalho Cave, at CISED – Dueça Speleological System Interpretation Centre, located in the village of Algarinho, Ferrarias (Penela). This is a unique experience in an underground environment, progressing along an underground river, involving contact with water, passage through confined spaces, small obstacles and crawling areas.

The activity takes place exclusively by prior arrangement, in small groups, with constant accompaniment by specialized guides. Three versions of the visit are available: VC (short visit), VA (extended visit), and VOL (exploration visit: "The other side - Beyond the gaze"), which differ in duration, level of difficulty, and depth of exploration, allowing the experience to be adapted to the profile and expectations of the participants.

Visits take place in morning or afternoon shifts, depending on the chosen program, with maximum times inside the cave of 2h30 (VC), 3h30 (VA) or 5h30 (VOL). The average temperature inside the cave is around 16 °C.

It is an experience with a strong sensory and exploratory component, ideal for those seeking adventure, direct contact with nature, and the discovery of the region's geological heritage.

What to bring?

Comfortable clothing to wear under the technical suit (which may get stained), as well as socks to wear with the provided galoshes. You should also bring a towel, slippers, and toiletries for showering at the end of the visit, as well as a complete change of clothes and a bag to store dirty laundry.

It is recommended not to bring valuables. If you intend to use a camera or video camera, be aware of the high probability of contact with water and mud, which could damage unprotected equipment.

Children with shoe sizes smaller than 34 should bring boots, galoshes, or closed shoes suitable for getting dirty.
